At last, for TEACHERS and PARENTS of elementary age children, our new SeaNotes Mini projects are in production and the first is available online even as you read this !

Deb Scala and I are packaging compact projects so teachers and parents can purchase in small sizes. Each is geared toward one specific subject.

In "Grampa's Compost Heap" you will discover how to compost organic material, use it in an experiment and also make worm jam !

Three activities are packaged with one song and you can find it here:

<http://www.foxglovemusicpress.com/miniordertable.html>

Or go to the main page, <http://www.foxglovemusicpress.com>, and follow the SeaNotes links.

The activities and song come in a .pdf document and a music track .mp3 file. It is available by download for $2.95.

To those of you in the northern regions of the country, are you tiring of the browns, greys and whites of winter?

Me, too. That's why I changed the site to GREEN !!!

The a cappella choral piece, "One Kiss", has been picked up by A-cappella.com and the sheet music will be sold through them very soon. More information will be posted in an upcoming newsletter.

The chamber ensemble piece "My Ghost's Waltz" has been picked up by Pump Audio, a seller of music to the film, television and advertising industry. We won't know how it's used until a check arrives sometime in the next year. But should you hear an advertisement with a music clip that sounds a lot like this piece ... it just may be!!

When I was a kid, it was Saturday morning cartoons for comic relief. As an adult, it became the Sunday Paper funny pages. Now it is "whenever-I-have-a-moment-of-time" YouTube.
