I have just added the Mp3 for one of our Jazz Songs, "Beautiful Day", to the site. The sheet music has been available for awhile, but now the Mp3 music track is included for free when the sheet music is purchased. The Mp3 music track is also available separately for $.99 - (that's 99 cents) .

Kent LaRue has written the lyrics to 3 of the Jazz Songs on the site. "Beautiful Day" started out as a demo that I delivered to Kent on a cassette tape (remember those?) -- guitar with voice humming the melody - and within 24 hours, Kent emailed me the PERFECT lyrics for the music. I performed it with guitar at the Coffee House at the UMC in Mt. Tabor last month and promptly forgot two out of four verses -- had to sing the first two verses a couple of times. It happens. As it turns out, I was able to record a simple arrangement of it with drum kit and bass, which makes for a more dynamic piece ... and includes all the words.

Have a listen - you can hear the entire piece all the way through. Hope you enjoy it!

I just want to clarify that this is NOT a contest. I will take as many stories as fit the specs. My calendar says that the next audio story project is scheduled for July, so please make your submission as soon as possible.

I'm happy to answer any questions you may have about this project. Thank you!

4. COOL FREE SOFTWARE DOWNLOAD

Here is a free anti-spyware download that cleans out malicious spy-ware or ad-ware bugs from your computer. If you're ever on the Internet, you may need something in addition to your anti-virus software to clean your computer. This software is called Ad-Aware SE by Lavasoft and I have found it very easy to install and use.

Find it here:

http://www.download.com/3120-20_4-0.html?tg=dl-20&qt=ad%20aware%20se&tag=srch

They sell other versions, too, so be sure the one you're downloading says "FREE".
