At the risk of giving away my age, there was a TV show I used to LOVE and avidly watch when I was a mere child, called "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour." For those of you not familiar with this program, it was a variety show presentation, hosted by two brothers named Tom and Dick Smothers and included various musical guests and skits performed by invited celebrities. It was humorous, musical and very entertaining.

As legend has it, the show got canned by the network due to the brothers' thinly veiled political nuances which was against their contract with the network. However, if it came back on today, I would tune in to every program.

Here's where you can tune in for Yo Yo Man:

Hope this puts a smile on your face!
